

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Introduction

IN offering the present volume to the notice of club-women, its publishers are responding to a demand brought repeatedly to their notice for a complete and reliable directory of members of the different organizations of women which have been established in Greater New York.

Until within the last ten years perhaps no such publication has been necessary, but since that time a revolution in the life of women has taken place. More and more generally they have come forth from the exclusive home life formerly regarded as their sphere, and taken their place among men in the great world of affairs.

Their ever widening horizon has opened to them no more delightful field of experience than that of club association, and that they thoroughly recognize its influence and appreciate its charm is shown by the fact that there are in Greater New York and vicinity to-day over two hundred women's organizations of various kinds, comprising altogether upward of twenty thousand members, besides an important membership in a large number of the recreation clubs of the outlying districts.

Responding to many requests, the publishers have included a complete registry of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of the entire United States.

come to New York? What are you to do about your shopping? It's so satisfactory to buy where there's such comprehensive showing. And it's my mission to keep well informed as to what is new and correct in the metropolis.

Then I Can

do your shopping for you; do it right, too. Buy anything you may wish—personal belongings, children's wear, home decorations. I have many clients. Never a dissatisfied one. I am thorough in my service. I wish to be employed a second and third time, always, once I have been entrusted with a commission. What shall I buy for you? Write me fully as to your wishes. No charge for service. Storekeepers pay me. Send for circular.

Young and Beautiful

With the good looks well preserved, a woman fears no rival. A beautiful complexion will even make a plain face attractive. Artificial means to obtain a beautiful complexion by the use of paint and other so-called "make-ups" are not always satisfactory, and are many times injurious.

Through scientific skill and thoughtful preparation, Madame Caroline, the well-known high-grade dermatologist, has made the Ne Plus Ultra Face Beautifier world-famous. It eradicates facial defects, such as wrinkles, freckles, blackheads, liver spots, etc. Many prominent women use it and recommend it highly. For $1.00 I will send a complete set of facial preparations—cream and soap included. Circulars sent free. Madame Caroline, 219 Sixth Ave., N. Y.

The advertisement features a central illustration of a woman in a late 19th-century corset and dress. To her left, a large circular logo contains the letters 'C/B'. Below this, a vertical chain of four smaller 'C/B' logos is shown. To her right, a large circular logo reads 'A-LA SPIRITE CORSETS'. Below this, a decorative frame contains the text 'ALL STRAIGHT FRONT MODELS'. At the bottom, a banner reads 'FOR THE WOMAN of FASHION'. The entire ad is framed by ornate borders, including swan-like motifs at the bottom corners. A small number '6' is visible in the bottom right corner of the ad frame.

THE ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION OF RUTGERS FEMALE INSTITUTE AND COLLEGE, New York City.

Although Rutgers Institute and College has long been but a name, her loyal daughters are united in an alumnae association, perhaps the oldest of its kind in the country. The annual luncheon, held at the Waldorf-Astoria on January 6th, and the Founders' Day celebration of May 6th, are always well attended. On the second Monday of each month, the association holds its meetings at the home of Miss Catherine J. Pryer, 52 West Twenty-seventh Street, New York. Here interesting papers on the topics of the day, including those of national and civic importance, are read and discussed.

AVON CLUB,New York City.

The Avon Club was organized in 1894, and has for its object the study and analysis of the works of Shakespeare. A winter's work usually covers two or three plays, which are fully and comprehensively discussed, and papers are presented on the literature contemporary with the date of the play under consideration. Lectures are frequently given during the year by distinguished Shakespearian scholars, when guests are invited. Shakespeare's birthday is always fittingly commemorated. Meetings are held fortnightly, on Friday evenings, at the homes of members.

BEDFORD POLITICAL EQUALITY LEAGUE,Brooklyn.

The Bedford Political Equality League was founded in 1894. Its object is to advance the legal, political, educational, and industrial status of womankind; to secure suffrage for them by state and national legislation, and by so doing to place women and men on an equal footing. Programme and social meetings are held by the League in Cooper Hall, at Bedford and Fulton avenues, on the first Thursday evening of each month, from October until May, inclusive. Business meetings occur on the third Monday of each month at the homes of members. The Bedford League is one of five composing the Kings County Political Equality League.

The name Chiropean was originated by Mrs. Bernard Peters. Every letter denotes a quality or an object which should be an inspiration to each member of the Club. The Chiropean Club of Brooklyn was organized in the Eastern District of that Borough for the purpose of bringing together intelligent women of the locality, with the view of making them helpful to each other and useful to society. Regular meetings of the club are held on the first and third Thursdays of every month, except June, July, August, and September. On the first Mondays the business meetings take place. Those held on third Mondays are social in character, and guests may be present. On the first and third Mondays in February anniversary exercises are held, during which newly elected officers are installed.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION, COLONIAL CHAPTER,

New York City.

The State Society of the Daughters of the Revolution, with headquarters at 228 West Fifty-eighth street, is the principal society, the chapters being small circles formed for social interests. The object of the New York Chapter, like that of other chapters, is to encourage patriotism, the study of the country's history, and social intercourse among its members. Its chief work has been the marking of revolutionary sites and the placing of tablets to the memory of patriots. The New York Chapter holds an annual meeting on the second Monday in November. Regular business meetings are held on the second Monday in each month, at which none but members may be present, although guests are invited to the "social hour" following the business meetings. The Society was organized in 1895.

WEBSTER'S GERMAN DIPHTHERIA CURE

IT HAS NEVER FAILED

TO THE PUBLIC:

It is not a CURE for Diphtheria alone, but for Tonsillitis, Quinsy, Croup and all kindred diseases of the throat. It will instantly relieve a Bronchial Cold. Singers and speakers who are subject to sore throat affections and hoarseness will find it an invaluable requisite.

German Diphtheria Cure is a meritorious MEDICINE, and is commendable for the cure of throat afflictions and bronchial troubles only. Those having occasion to use it will please bear in mind that it is a Doctor's private prescription medicine, and must be taken according to the directions given, and with accuracy, to bring about the correct and desired result.

Important.—In malignant diseases (Diphtheria and Membranous Croup) the PHYSIC, after each three doses are taken, is to assist the medicine to drive the poisonous membrane and other impurities from the system, and it should not and must not be neglected in the other diseases.

Our MEDICINE works on the entire system, and it is the only known medicine that positively cures Diphtheria, and that is also a preventive of it, and other PAINFUL diseases we mention.

Keep it in the house for an emergency. Prompt action means life, and short delay means death.

Yours respectfully,

Ask your Druggist for it.

THE MUNICIPAL ART SOCIETY OF NEW YORK,

National Arts Club, 37 and 39 West Thirty-fourth Street, New York City.

The aim and scope of the Municipal Art Society is to provide adequate sculptural and pictorial decorations for the public buildings and parks in the City of New York, and to promote in every way the beautifying of its streets and public places. It is believed that city pride would be thus stimulated, and that in interesting the people in their city, and making it more pleasant, more homelike, and more attractive to them, and to others, lies the most direct route toward civic betterment—material, political, and moral. The Society was organized in March, 1892, and incorporated in 1898. There are but three women officers.

37 and 39 West Thirty-fourth Street, New York City.

The objects of the National Arts Club are to promote acquaintance between art lovers and art workers in the United States, and to encourage the publication and circulation of news, suggestions, and discussions relating to the fine arts. The National Arts Club was incorporated in 1898. The annual meeting for the election of officers takes place on the second Tuesday of April, and the regular business meetings on the second Wednesday of each month except July, August, and September. The club has a large membership of women, but there are no women officers.

The New Century Study Circle was organized in 1901 for the study of the science of government and current events. With these topics the Circle occupies itself at the weekly sessions, held on Tuesdays at the Hotel St. Andrew, corner of Seventy-second Street and Broadway. A feature of the sessions is the quotation roll-call with which the meetings are opened. In this the members respond to their names by a quotation from the works of an author previously selected for that day's session. These responses are preserved and filed with the record of the meeting.

THE NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB,

New York City.

The present membership of the Nineteenth Century Club is 106, of whom forty-six are women. The club was founded in the year 1883 by Mr. Courtlandt Palmer, for the purpose of furthering liberty of expression as to theories of politics, industry, science, art, philosophy, or religion; with the idea that by interchange and comparison of conflicting opinions a basis of agreement on important questions may some time be evolved. The general club receptions, of which there were six during the past year, were held at the rooms of the Aldine Club, and the three business meetings took place, one at the Aldine, and the others at the National Arts Club.

THE ORIGINAL WOMAN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB OF BROOKLYN,

Brooklyn.

Any woman who advocates Republican principles and is willing to adopt the constitution and by-laws of the Original Woman's Republican Club may become a member. The club was founded in 1893 by Mrs. Kate M. Bostwick, and is the pioneer political club of Brooklyn. Its object is to unite women in educational and social effort, to maintain Republican principles, to urge registration, and to render aid to the Republican committee during campaign seasons. The members meet on the first Tuesday in every month, from October until June, at the residence of Mrs. Catherine E. Marshall, 131 St. Felix Street, Brooklyn. Social and educational sessions are also held each month.

THE POST PARLIAMENT,New York City.

The Post Parliament was organized May 4, 1904, by Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, in response to a need for practice greatly felt by those who had attended Mrs. Walworth's classes in parliamentary law. The desire for post practice suggested the name which was adopted by the organization. From October to April meetings take place on the second and fourth Fridays of each month in the rooms of the Genealogical Society, 226 West Fifty-eighth Street. The original feature of this organization is its moot parliament, held in January, which consists of a mock session of some legislative or deliberative body.

TOWN AND COUNTRY CLUB,

12 East Twenty-second Street, New York City.

The Town and Country Club was established by Mrs. Florence C. Ives, November 1, 1895, and is designed to furnish a needed resting place in the shopping district for women who live uptown or in the suburbs, and to offer a New York home to those who live at a distance. It has no other aim than the comfort of its members. Monday is Club Day, and from November 1st to May 1st tea is served between four and five o'clock.

Manager,

MISS H. C. CARPENTER.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB,

Brooklyn.

The membership of the Twentieth Century Club, of Brooklyn, is composed of both women and men. The club was founded by Mrs. Mary J. Field in the year 1893, its object being the broad and free discussion of ideas and events, and the entertainment of prominent persons. There are six or eight meetings during the season, which are held at private houses, and are never reported. These meetings are of irregular occurrence, evenings being selected which allow the attendance of the distinguished speakers who it is desired should address the members. There are but two women officers.

VASSAR STUDENTS' AID SOCIETY,

New York City Branch.

Now in its fourteenth year, the Vassar Students' Aid Society is in a flourishing condition, with almost as many branches as it is years old. As the name indicates, the society exists primarily to aid women who are desirous of a Vassar College education. Its fund is devoted to this purpose, and loans are made to deserving persons. The Vassar Students' Aid Society has also its social side, and aims to sustain friendly relations between all who have ever been pupils of the college. Four social meetings are held during the season, the gathering place this year having been the University Women's Club House, 10 Gramercy Park. At the close of the season an entertainment is held at one of the large hotels.

WHEATON CLUB,New York City.

The Wheaton Club is an alumnae association of the pupils of Wheaton Seminary, at Norton, Mass. It was founded, in 1886, at the home of the president, Mrs. Clark, who has been the president ever since, and has done not a little to promote the interests of the seminary, as well as encourage the growth of the club. The Wheaton Club was organized with the purpose of meeting socially at an annual luncheon, but at the first luncheon so much literary talent was disclosed among the members that it was resolved to continue as a literary club, with three or four programme meetings each season. The club meets at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on the third Saturdays of November, January, and February. In March a business meeting is held.

WOMEN'S HEALTH PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION,New York City.

Its reason for being, as well as the nature of its work, is fully given in the name of the Women's Health Protective Association. Since its incorporation, in December, 1884, the association has labored without ceasing, to establish reforms tending toward more sanitary conditions in the city, and to its effort is due, among many other advances, the improved condition of the streets, the scientific manner of slaughtering meats, the enforcement of cleanliness in city stables, the abatement of the spitting nuisance, and the diminishing of poisonous gas-house odors. The association meets at the Academy of Medicine on alternate Tuesdays. It has no attractive social features to offer its members, but invites them to come in and help to keep the city clean and healthful, and its air and water pure.

In happy contrast to all the alleged health corsets, girdles and waists advertised as hygienic corset substitutes, the offers beauty, grace, comfort and health in exchange for the pressure, harm, and discomfort inseparable from the stays of fashion, because it rests exclusively upon the shoulder bones and hip bones—the only logical supporting points—at the same time allowing full play to all organs requiring unrestricted freedom for healthy exercise of their respective functions. Price, $2.00. Give bust and hip measurements. If your dealer cannot supply you, write us or call in person for up-to-date ideas on how to dress in style and comfort without corsets.

"ONE CENT BUYS THE BEST"

A Woman's Daily

There is no evening paper in
New York which is more popular with women than

THE EVENING MAIL

Because THE EVENING MAIL
prints the most and the best
Fashion and Society news, together with fiction and
other matter that women
like to read.

Dancing Master

LENOX DANCING ACADEMY

Waltz, Two-step and all the latest dances. Always open. Stage specialties. Marches directed. To those about to make arrangements for lessons in dancing it is most important that they should select an able and experienced instructor. This will cost less in the end, and will be of lasting advantage to the pupil.

We have patented three latest Double Safety Riding Skirts, one cool for summer and ring, one for winter, and one for cross-saddle and cycle riding, surpassing all others for grace, fit and comfort.

Our New System for fitting Riding Habits is the most comfortable and most private of any in use.

INSTRUCTION

Are You Musical?

If so, send me your compositions, whether Vocal or Instrumental, and I will tell you what I can do FOR YOU. I make a specialty of encouraging native talent, and can make NAME, FAME and FORTUNE for those who truly deserve encouragement. I publish for the masses, while to many the very name of "Saalfeld" is synonymous with music. (All manuscripts and correspondence must be accompanied by postage.)
